

3M National Student Fellowships
Prix d'excellence national 3M pour les étudiants

Announcing the 3M National Student Fellows

Cameron Bell
 3rd year
 Arts/Environmental Studies,
 University of Northern
 British Columbia

Selena Demenoff
 3rd year
 Health Sciences/
 Biomedical Studies,
 University of Northern
 British Columbia

Pascal Genest Richard
 3rd year
 Bioresource
 Engineering,
 McGill University

Ray Charles Howard
 2nd year
 International Economics
 and Finance,
 Ryerson University

Jolène Labbé,
 2nd year
 Arts and Science/International Development, Biology
 and Economics,
 University of Guelph

Johanna Lewis
 3rd year
 Double major, Global Health; Women and
 Gender Studies,
 University of Toronto

Mimi Liu
 2nd year
 Joint Specialist in International Relations
 and Peace and Conflict Studies, Minor in Asia-Pacific Studies,
 University of Toronto

Sarah Nichols
 3rd year
 Commerce,
 Carleton University

John Alex Pritz
 3rd year
 School of the Environment/Ecological Determinants of Health,
 McGill University

Alannah Robinson
 3rd year
 Honours Recreation
 and Leisure Co-op,
 University of Waterloo

The 3M National Student Fellowship Award was introduced to honour undergraduate students in Canada who have demonstrated qualities of outstanding leadership and who embrace a vision where the quality of their educational experience can be enhanced in academia and beyond. Each candidate provided us with their definition of leadership in the context of his or her educational experience. We also asked applicants to explain why they aspired to leadership roles and to share a challenge in post-secondary education along with a proposed solution.

The 2012 awards were open to undergraduates enrolled full-time in a college or university in Canada, and neither in the first nor the final year of their program.

This partnership between 3M Canada and STLHE marks an exciting beginning for students across Canada to distinguish themselves as part of a unique learning community.

Each of the ten winners receives a $5,000 award, registration at the STLHE conference, participation in a day-long retreat held in Montreal as well as accommodation and funds towards travel to Montreal. They are invited to take part in a collaborative project related to post-secondary education.

STLHE will honour the 2012 3M National Student Fellows formally at the annual conference, hosted by McGill University, Concordia University, Université de Montréal and Champlain College St. Lambert on June 21 in Montreal.

To help celebrate this first year of the award, the 2012 Fellows, along with student representatives from each of the host institutions will lead the Closing Plenary at the conference on June 22, moderated by Dr. Alice Cassidy, 3M NSF Award Coordinator.

This year's inaugural group of 3M National Student Fellows will be creating a legacy that we know will assist many future years of undergraduate students across Canada.

For more information contact:
 Dr. Alice Cassidy,
Award Coordinator
 University of British Columbia
 alicecas@telus.net

Ms. Natalie Gerum,
Award Vice-coordinator
 Lakehead University
 natalie.gerum@gmail.com

Dr. Valerie Lopes,
Award Vice-coordinator
 Seneca College
 valerie.lopes@senecacollege.ca

www.stlhe.ca/awards/
 3m-national-student-fellowships/

